

Hey, Hey, My Money's All Gone

Chris Janson

Hey, hey, my money's all gone
It up and ran away and left me here all alone
Y'all, I know I ain't the only one
Singin' hey, hey, my money's all gone

Well I lifted my truck, and I got new rims
Lord I was singin' a happy song
But I checked my bank account when I got home
And oh no, my money's all gone

Singin' hey, hey, my money's all gone
It up and ran away and left me here all alone
Y'all, I know I ain't the only one
Singin' hey, hey, my money's all gone

Well I used to hang out, till two in the morn
Women, and drinkin' all the beer till it's gone
But man that drinkin' got me nothin' but stoned
And it never took long, till my money was gone

Singin' hey, hey, my money's all gone
It up and ran away and left me here all alone
Y'all, I know I ain't the only one
Singin' hey, hey, my money's all gone

Well I married the prettiest girl in the world
We picked out a ring and it's on her left hand
It's a white gold band with a bunch of pretty stones
Now oh no my money's all gone

Hey, hey, my money's all gone
It up and ran away, but at least I ain't all alone
Y'all, I know I ain't the only one
Singin' hey, hey, my money's all gone

Singin' hey, hey, my money's all gone
It up and ran away and left me here all alone
Y'all, I know I ain't the only one
Singin' hey, hey, my money's all gone
