

Yeah It Is

Chris Janson

Is that an Ole Miss Rebel tat
Sittin' right there on her lower back?
Yea it is
Is that a wedding band turned upside down
Cause she don't wanna show it 'round?
Yea it is
Is that a picture of her kids
On the key ring of her Benz?
Yea it is
Is that a woman sittin' on a stool
Cryin' over some damn fool?
Yea it is

It ain't just what you thought it was
The single gal tryna catch a buzz
It's the only day a week she gets alone
It's just what you think it is
Lonely mom of three great kids
She was left to raise 'em on her own
Is that an empty barstool sittin' there beside her?
Yea it is

Is that a Maker's Mark you're drankin'
To forget the things you're thinkin'?
She said...yea it is
I said when a heart like yours is broken
Are you sure the whiskey's workin'?
She said...yea it is
Is there a chane if I keep buyin'
I can stop them pretty eyes from cryin'?
She said...yea there is
I said well honey that's just what I'm gonna do
As long as that's ok with you
She said...yea it is

Oh but it ain't just what you thought it was
The single gal tryna catch a buzz
It's the only day a week she gets alone
It's just what you think it is
A lonely mom of three great kids
She was left to raise 'em on her own
And it's a good idea I stay right here beside her
Yea it is
Oh but it ain't just what you thought it was
A single gal trying to catch a buzz
It's the only day of the week she gets alone
It's a real good thing I pulled up here beside her
Yea it is
