

Buried

Chris Kläfford

You take me to a hard place, honey
You take me there all the time
You call me up and I come running
But I know what I'm gonna find
You give me once bitten twice shy loving
Should have listen to my own advice
I guess I'm not quite done hurting
'Cause you've bitten me more than twice

I don't need to remember
All the places we've been
'Cause I just need forget you
The best I've ever seen

That's why you're
Buried down, you've been
Buried down, you've been
Buried down in me
'Cause if I let you out
You're gon' roll like a river runs south
That's why you buried down in me

Everyone said leave it alone
Never look back, better move on Better move on

So why'd I always remember
To mix the good with the bad
It's so hard to forget you
The best I've ever had
That's why you're

Buried down, you've been
Buried down, you've been
Buried down in me
'Cause if I let you out
You're gonna roll like a river runs south
That's why you're buried down in me
That's why you're buried down in me

'Cause I found me way since you
Left me straight, ain't there
Somewhere else that you should be

Buried down, you've been
Buried down, you've been
Buried down in me
Buried down, you've been
Buried down, you've been
Buried down in me
'Cause if I let you out
You're gon' roll like a river runs south
That's why you're buried down in me
