

Lost Someone

Chris Kläfford

Every single streets a memory
Of the way you used to hold me
We were here before
When we were here before

And now I think I'm losing it
Remembering the dance we did
Going back and forth
We're going back and forth

Cos love is not a lesson that is easily unlearned
I wish that it was just a dirty word
Like the ones I'm screaming
Now I don't feel strong

How long
Is too long
How long
Can I keep trying not to feel
Like some one
Who lost someone
Will I start to heal
When I believe you're gone?
Time I was moving on

Photographs can hurt like weapons
Especially when you don't expect them
Staring at a ghost
I'm staring at a ghost

And maybe I just didn't say
I let my pride get in the way
I wanted you the most
I still want you the most

Cos love is not a lesson that is easily unlearned
I wish that it was just a dirty word
Like the ones I'm screaming
Now I don't feel strong

How long
Is too long
How long
Can I keep trying not to feel
Like some one
Who lost someone
Will I start to heal
When I believe you're gone?
Time I was moving on

Time keeps moving on
Time I was moving on

How long
Is too long
How long
Can I keep trying not to feel

Like some one
Who lost someone
Will I start to heal
Start to heal

How long
Is too long
How long
Can I keep trying not to feel
Like some one
Who lost someone
Will I start to heal
When I believe you're gone?
Time I was moving on
