

One Mistake

Chris Kläfford

Tell me are you sleeping
Do you feel the hurt
Wishing that you'd call home
I'll leave the door unlocked

Secrets that we're keeping
I won't say a word
When you told me that you're leaving
Darling, not if I leave first

Rehearsing lines within my mind
Take it for what it's worth
I'll confess, I've been a mess
But I want to make it work

One mistake is all it takes
For something that you love to end
One mistake is all it takes
To lose someone you called a friend

I'm tired of fighting
I'd be lying
If I said I don't regret
My one mistake
What will it take?
For us to begin again
My old friend

Tell me are you happy
I guess it could be worse
I guess they say in life "shit happens"
The pain of being birthed

Rehearsing lines within my mind
Take it for what it's worth
I'll confess, I've been a mess
But I want to make it work

One mistake is all it takes
For something that you love to end
One mistake is all it takes
To lose someone you called a friend

I'm tired of fighting
I'd be lying
If I said I don't regret
My one mistake
What will it take?
For us to begin again

I'm sorry, not sorry
I'll forgive, but won't forget

I'm sorry, I'm learning
To live with no regrets

One mistake is all it takes

One mistake is all it takes

One mistake is all it takes
To lose someone you called a friend

I'm tired of fighting
I'd be lying
If said I don't regret
My one mistake
What will it take?
For us to begin again
My old friend

(One mistake is all it takes
To lose someone you called a friend)

I'm tired of fighting
I'd be lying
If I said I don't regret
My one mistake
What will it take?
For us to begin again
My old friend
