

Somebody left somebody all alone
Somebody's dog never made it back home
Sometimes hope sinks like a stone
Keep your head up, keep your head up
Keep your head up and go on

Can't even know when the sun goes down
Can't see nothing looking at the ground
How you gonna know if something good comes around
Keep your head up, keep your head up
Keep your head up and go on

I keep telling myself
Pull the sun out of the clouds
Build a fire in the rain
Find your way out

I keep on doing only thing I know
I'm coming back but it's going kinda slow
Just waiting 'til a fair wind starts to blow
Keep my head up, keep my head up
Keep my head up and go on

I keep telling myself
Gonna pull the sun out of the clouds
Build a fire in the rain
Find my way out

Keep my head up, keep my head up
Keep my head up and go on
Keep your head up, keep your head up
Keep your head up and go on
