

Punchy Bareback Rider

Chris LeDoux

I'm just a punchy bareback rider in the rodeo I climb the gate grab my rig and go
The horse explodes from the chute kickin' at the sky
I fall back kick his neck pull on my arm and try

He's a jumpin' and a kickin' out across the arena dirt Well I bruised my tail bone last Saturday and it's beginnin' to hurt
Well I'm tryin' while I'm hopin' that the whistle soon will sou nd
And my tail hurts and I let go and he flings me to the ground
