

Comeback

Chris Mann

Comeback, comeback, comeback!
Oh oh oh comeback!

Never thought it would be easy
But I sure I could win
Always knew when I fell down
Wasn't too far to get back up again
People always try to tell me
It was the end of the road
But who were they to tell me
Just how far I was gonna go?
Said I was down but I never was out

Oh...
All the hell that I been through
I'm wearing bruises like tattoos
Sometimes you're gonna win
Sometimes you're gonna lose
Hey
So you better hold on tight
Cause I'm ready for this fight
Don't you know what a comeback looks like? (Comeback, comeback)
Don't you know what a comeback looks like? (Comeback)
Oh oh oh comeback!

You don't know what I'm planning
You got no idea
I'll be the last man standing
After the knockouts disappear
Yeah!
When I finally get there
Right on top where I belong
Did I come outta nowhere?
No I been here all along
Said I was down but I never was out

Oh...
All the hell that I been through
I'm wearing bruises like tattoos
Sometimes you're gonna win
Sometimes you're gonna lose
Hey
So you better hold on tight
Cause I'm ready for this fight
Don't you know what a comeback looks like? (Comeback, comeback)
Don't you know what a comeback looks like? (Comeback)
Oh oh oh comeback!

Comeback, comeback
Gotta get up gotta make a comeback (I'm gonna pick myself up again)
Comeback, comeback, comeback
Gotta get up gotta make a comeback!

Oh...
All the hell that I been through
I'm wearing bruises like tattoos
Sometimes you're gonna win

Sometimes you're gonna lose
Hey
So you better hold on tight
Cause I'm ready for this fight
Don't you know what a comeback looks like? (Comeback, comeback, comeback)
Oh oh oh...
Comeback (comeback)
Comeback (comeback)
Comeback (comeback)
Gotta get up gotta make a comeback!
Don't you know what a comeback looks like? (Comeback, comeback)
Oh oh oh comeback!
