

Honestly

Chris Mann

Look into my eyes
What you see tonight
You can believe it
And I only know the truth
When I'm holding you
Hope you can feel it

If I'm better than I used to be
Stronger on my own two feet
It's all because you're standing here with me

I, I am because you are
Everything under the stars
My only heart, every reason, every feeling
That feels right to me
Honestly

You got me opened up
To a deeper love
It's like an ocean
And all I wanna do
Is give it back to you
In every moment

If every planet fell tonight
Everything would be alright
As long as you're still lying by my side

And I, I am because you are
Everything under the stars
My only heart, every reason, every feeling
That feels right to me
Honestly

No matter what this life will be
I can promise you one thing
I will love you honestly
Honestly
Honestly

I, I am because you are

I, I am because you are
Everything under the stars
My only heart, every reason, every feeling
That feels right to me
Honestly
