

Slow

Chris Mann

Let me take your guard down show me the woman underneath
I wanna paint the walls with our shadows
Let the palm of my hand be the place to rest your head
And caress you like a bow on a cello

Slow

Like a candle melting in the night

Slow

Like the way we open up inside

Slow

Like we're moving back in time

I don't ever wanna rush what matters most

So let me love you slow

Slow

I'm feeling so thankful for every man who let you go
Now they're missing all the beautiful I see (beautiful I see)
You're a rose in the sun so perfectly spun
I wanna hold you close and feel you blown with me

Slow

Like a candle melting in the night

Slow

Like the way we open up inside

Slow

Like we're moving back in time

I don't ever wanna rush what matters most

So let me love you slow

Slow

Slow (slow)

Let's fight each other one kiss at a time
If it takes us forever I don't mind
Oh (forever)

Slow

Like a candle melting in the night

Slow

Like the way we open up inside

Slow (slow)

I don't ever wanna rush what matters most (rush what matters most)

I don't ever wanna rush what matters most

I don't ever wanna rush what matters most

Just let me love you

Just let me let me love you

I wanna love

I don't wanna

Just let me love you slow
