

Thank U Frontline

Chris Mann

How 'bout taking a moment to thank the frontline
How 'bout thinking of others who can't stay home
How 'bout fighting to get these workers protection
How 'bout standing up for the ones we love

Thank you doctors
Thank you nurses
Thanks for working the frontline
Thank you scientists
Thank you pharmacists
Thanks for working overtime

How 'bout reigning it in for the bigger picture
How 'bout putting another before yourself
How 'bout appreciating what we took for granted (Everything)
How 'bout slow clapping those who are soldiering on, ey

The sooner the moment this all will be over
There's so many ways to help out
Let us start by giving thanks

To everyone who's struggling, I feel you (I so do)
