

Between The Lines

Chris Martin

You see the signs
See the signs and you move like yuh blind

Create something in your mind
To tell yourself it's alright
Bredda you kill her vibes, she's crying out her eyes
She's in turmoil

Mi bredda read between the lines
Time to let her go
You nuh see she's showing you the signs
She nuh happy no more
I tell you seh fi read between the lines
If she nuh love you no more
Don't you ever think to take her life
If she wants to go then let her go

Last time mi check the ratio a ten to one
Whole heap of woman out there fi attend to man
Is she seh she done you need to understand
Me know you love her but you have to love yourself too
Cyah believe, cyah believe weh me hearing
Where's the love for one another, where's the caring?
Me know seh nuff a di woman out there daring
But fi you life bredda you countrol the steering

Now you haffi read between the lines
Time to let her go
You nuh see she's showing you the signs
She nuh happy no more
I tell you seh fi read between the lines
If she nuh love you no more
Don't you ever think to take her life
If she wants to go then let her go

Every night me watch the news, is a next thing
Know me nuh fi watch it 'cause it ago vexxing
Hea rhim tek her life 'cause him ketch her texting
Like the man den nah no heart inna dem chest king
Hurt me heart to
See the families bawling
When them catch the wasteman dem talking
Bout how much them invest inna di women

And dem never read between the lines
Time to let her go
You nuh see she's showing you the signs
She nuh happy no more
I tell you seh fi read between the lines
If she nuh love you no more
Don't you ever think to take her life
If she wants to go then let her go

Let her go, let her go
Let her go
Let her go, let her go
Let her go

Let her go, let her go, let her go
She nuh happy no more
Let her go, let her go

Now you have to read between the lines
Time to let her go
You nuh see she's showing you the signs
She nuh happy no more
I tell you seh fi read between the lines
If she nuh love you no more
Don't you ever think to take her life
If she wants to go then let her go
