

Free Me Up

Chris Martin

This a me girl, we have been friends for so long
Baby, listen to my song

You know and I know that we belong together
You know and I know, alright, yeah
Why do you play with my heart and my feelings, ah
Why do you play with my mind? My mind, yeah

Hey, we've been friends for many years, hey
How about we move this relationship from here
Tell me what you think
I'm just tryna make it clear, to you girl
Full time we set the link, so, baby

Free me up, free me up
Don't lock me in the box of a friend or brother
Free me up, free me up
Meant to be your man of significant order

'Cause you know and I know that we belong together
You know and I know, alright, yeah
Why do you play with my heart and my feelings, ah
Why do you play with my mind? My mind, yeah

From we a young, me a you a trod
From basic school me a carry your bag
Mi know the love you have for me, a lickkle lot
If you nuh walk beside me, the school mi suck
[?] deep inside me love you so much
Me love a run over, can't hold inna my cup
Girl, I gotta feel your touch, so baby

Free me up, free me up
Don't lock me in the box of a friend or brother
Free me up, free me up
Meant to be your man of significant order

'Cause you know and I know that we belong together, baby
You know and I know, alright, yeah
Why do you play with my heart and my feelings, ah
Why do you play with my mind? My mind, yeah

So my girl
I meant fi be your man, fi be your man
I meant fi be your man from ninety, no long
You know I meant fi be your man, fi be your man
I meant fi be the man weh standin' inna your plan, girl

I meant fi be your man, fi be your man
I meant fi be your man from ninety, no long
I meant fi be your man, fi be your man, oh

So baby, free me up, free me up
Don't lock me in the box of a friend or brother
Free me up, free me up
Meant to be your man of significant order

'Cause you know and I know that we belong together, baby
(Yes we do) You know and I know, alright, yeah
Why do you play with my heart and my feelings, ah
Why do you play with my mind? My mind, yeah
