

Long Distance Lover

Chris Martin

Distance
Can we work with the distance?
Distance, the distance, oh

What is love?
Is it just a feeling?
Like sexual healing in the Marvin Gaye song

What is love?
Is it just for a time?
Is just for a season?
Is it all in your mind?
Tell me

If you need me and I'm not there for you
Would you give it away? Give it away
Tell me (tell me, baby)
If you need a fix and I'm not there
Would you give it away?

My long distance lover
These miles aren't our friends
The calls that we making, the photos we send
They don't mean nothing (they don't mean nothing)
You know they won't mean nothing (they won't)
If you give away the love in the end

Tell me
If you need a fix and I'm not there
Would you cheat

My long distance love
These miles aren't our friends
But I need you to love me
Like you won't love again
But it won't mean nothing (they don't mean nothing)
You know it won't mean nothing (they won't)
If you give away

My long distance lover
These miles aren't our friends
The calls that we making, the photos we send
They don't mean nothing
They don't mean nothing, yeah

My long distance lover
These miles aren't our friends
Ooh, the phone we call and the pictures we send
You know they won't mean nothing
They don't mean nothing

The end
