

Messenger

Chris Martin

Well I, well I, well I, well I've
Been through a lot
But I, but I, but I, but I
Will never try to be someone I'm not

So if you go somewhere and hear something about mi
Girl, ask mi don't you doubt mi
'Cause a nuff bwoy waan' fi out mi

So if you don't trust the messenger
Why would you trust the message, hey
And if you don't think I love you, girl
Why do you take my loving
Girl, if you don't trust me
Now you won't trust me later, oh no
So if you go listen to hearsay
See you later, oh see you later
Oh see you later, girl, see you later
Oh see you later, yeah - hey, yo

A must the loving a hold are
'Cause every day she get another complaint
He seh, she seh, weh mi do, weh mi deh
Mi no understand why she stays
But baby don't make the messages fool you
And don't let the messengers rule you, hey
Cah they don't really wanna see you happy
'Member misery loves company

So if you don't trust the messenger
Why would you trust the message
And if you don't think I love you, girl
Why do you take my loving
Girl, if you don't trust me
Now you won't trust me later, oh no
So if you go listen to hearsay
See you later, oh see you later
Oh see you later, girl, see you later
Oh see you later, yeah - hey, hey

Mek mi tell you bout this girl of mine
Mek people tell are things all the time
Lies about mi backed in her mind
And from the story negative she listens every line
'Cause she is a pessimist
In the beginning she wasn't like this
Every lie them tell 'pon mi she believe
A wonder if a leave she want mi fi leave
If you leave me, girl, you won't find a better man, no
If they think I'm no good
Tell them find you a better man, yeah
'Cause I know for sure I bring you happiness
'Cause you can't better, girl
When you already have the best

So if you don't trust the messenger
Why would you trust the message

And if you don't think I love you, girl
Why do you take my loving
Girl, if you don't trust me
Now you won't trust me later, oh no
So if you go listen to hearsay
See you later, oh see you later
Oh see you later, girl, see you later
Oh see you later, yeah

Hey, na na na na, yeah
Messenger, the messenger...
