

No Expectations

Chris Martin

All night loving from nights with nobody
Nights with nobody at all, at all
Me say, all night loving from nights with nobody
From nights with nobody at all, at all

Boy, let's get together and take a vacay
Some beres Hammond on the speakers playing the rock a way
Under the moon light
Pour some expensive wine
We're gonna love each other good
No time to waste no time

Let me love you now over your body
Not expecting nobody, nobody
Let me love you now
Tomorrow's not guaranteed
So, tonight, I'll have you
And you can have me
Not expecting nobody, nobody, nobody
Not expecting nobody, nobody, nobody
Not expecting no

Girl, let's get together
And share a weekend full of pleasure
Get to know you better
Been talking for a while
Now is the perfect time
For my hands to prove my lips have told no lies

Let me love you now over your body
Not expecting nobody, nobody
Let me love you now
Tomorrow's not guaranteed
So, tonight, I'll have you
And you can have me
Not expecting nobody, nobody, nobody
Not expecting nobody, nobody, nobody
Not expecting no
Not expecting no

Boy, let's get together and take a vacay
OK
Some beres Hammond on the speakers playing the rock a way
Turn it up
Under the moon light
Pour some expensive wine
Chardonnay
We're gonna love each other good
No time to waste no time
Never

Let me love you now over your body
Let me love you now
So, tonight, I'll have you
You can have me

Not expecting nobody, nobody, nobody
Not expecting no
