This girl want my time
This girl want my time, hmm

This girl want my time, so I gave her my clock
Her legs were tired, so I gave her my love
She ask for my number to link on WhatsApp
So she link me this morning and ask me, "What's up?"
Say she's in the mood to stay home and relax
But she want company and an afternoon snap
So I jump in my car, and I drop the top
Rushing over to shorty in a flash, cah
She want some love, but she want it non-stop
She want it ruff, but she love the comfort
She want the rapid verse with the one drop
She want fi drop it down low and me fi bring it up back
