

Breakthrough

Chris McClarney

There must be more
Beyond familiar shores
Into waters unexplored
This one desire
Stirring here in me
Deep is calling out to deep

Take me from where I've been
Into something new
I'm giving up control
I need a breakthrough
All of my dreams and fears
Are crashing into You
You're waking up my hope
You are my breakthrough
Come breakthrough

Your love, so wild
Conquers my defense
Opens the impossible
It's so amazing
How You take the ashes
And turn them into beautiful

Take me from where I've been
Into something new
I'm giving up control
I need a breakthrough
All of my dreams and fears
Are crashing into You
You're waking up my hope
You are my breakthrough
Come breakthrough
You are my breakthrough
Breakthrough

You're making all things new
You're making all things new
It's what You always do
You are my breakthrough
You're making all things new
You're making all things new
It's what You always do
You are my breakthrough
You're making all things new
You're making all things new
It's what You always do
You are my breakthrough
You're making all things new
You're making all things new
It's what You always do
You are my breakthrough!

Take me from where I've been
Into something new
I'm giving up control

All of my dreams and fears
Into something new
I'm giving up control
I need a breakthrough
All of my dreams and fears
You are my breakthrough
Come breakthrough
Oh Lord, You are my breakthrough
Jesus, come breakthrough

Take me from where I've been
Into something new
I'm giving up control
I need a breakthrough
All of my dreams and fears
Are crashing into You
