

Center Stage

Chris McClarney

I draw close, I am desperate for connection, connection
Heart and soul, all I'm after is Your presence, Your presence
Come and take Your place
Center stage

Let everything else just fade away
Let everything else just fade away
Oh Heaven rush in and fill this place
Let everything else just fade away...

Flood my thoughts with the stories of Your goodness, Your goodness
Fix my eyes on the power of Your promise, Your promise
Come and take Your place
Center stage

Let everything else just fade away
Let everything else just fade away
Oh Heaven rush in and fill this place
Let everything else just fade away
Let everything else just fade away
Let everything else just fade away
Oh Heaven rush in and fill this place
Let everything else just fade away

To know You and be known by You
There's nothing better
To behold You and be held by You
You are my treasure
To know You and be known by You
There's nothing better
To behold You and be held by You
You are my treasure

Let everything else just fade away
Let everything else just fade away
Oh Heaven rush in and fill this place
Let everything else just fade away
Let everything else just fade away
Let everything else just fade away
Oh Heaven rush in and fill this place
Let everything else just fade away
Oh Heaven rush in and fill this place
Let everything else just fade away
