

Empty

Chris McClarney

On that cross on Calvary's hill
Hope seemed lost, blood was spilled
The promised King in a tomb
Hell rejoiced, but Heaven knew

When the stone was rolled away
There was nothing in the grave

Empty, the grave is empty
No power of hell could hold him down
The grave is empty, my God is living
Death could not keep Him in the ground
The grave is empty

The greatest news there's ever been
Darkness lost, Jesus wins
Sin and shame, were crucified
So celebrate, He is alive

Empty, the grave is empty
No power of hell could hold him down
The grave is empty, my God is living
Death could not keep Him in the ground
The grave is empty

He's alive, He's alive
The Lamb of God, the King of Kings
He's alive, He's alive
O tell me death where is your sting?

He's alive, He's alive
The Lamb of God, the King of Kings
He's alive, He's alive
O tell me death where is your sting?

He's alive, He's alive
The Lamb of God, the King of Kings
He's alive, He's alive
O tell me death where is your sting?
O tell me death where is your sting?

Empty, the grave is empty
No power of hell could hold him down
The grave is empty, my God is living
Death could not keep Him in the ground
The grave is empty

He's alive, He's alive
The Lamb of God, the King of Kings
He's alive, He's alive
O tell me death where is your sting?
O tell me death where is your sting?

Empty, the grave is empty
