

My Beautiful

Chris McClarney

I give my heart, I give my name
I give my hands, I give my face
As an offering to You
As an offering to You

My every thought I lay it down
Just for the chance and for the crown
As an offering to You
As an offering to You

I love You Jesus, I love You Jesus
My beautiful, You are
I love you Jesus, I love You Jesus
With everything I am I worship You

I give my eyes, I give me knees
My greatest prize, my deepest needs
And I offer it to You
I offer it to You

I give my doubts, I give my dreams
My hopeless nights, my dancing feet
I offer it to You
Oh, I offer it to You

I love You Jesus, I love You Jesus
My beautiful, You are
I love you Jesus, I love You Jesus
With everything I am I worship You

The choir of angels 'round your feet
We lift our hands up and we sing
You are worthy

Lamb of God, the risen one
The sacrifice, the holy one
You are worthy, You are worthy

I love You Jesus, I love You Jesus
My beautiful, You are
I love you Jesus, I love You Jesus
With everything I am I worship You

I love You Jesus, I love You Jesus
My beautiful, You are
I love you Jesus, I love You Jesus
With everything I am I worship You
