

Thirsty

Chris McClarney

Come drink
From the well that never runs dry
Go deep
And let Love teach us to fly

There is rest here in the arms of Christ
And all who seek will surely find

If you're thirsty
The Spirit and the bride say come
Oh come, oh come
There's mercy
It doesn't matter what you've done
Oh come, oh come

Just breathe
Let peace take over your soul
'Cause whatever you need
Our God is in control

There is rest here in the arms of Christ
And all who seek will surely find

If you're thirsty
The Spirit and the bride say come
Oh come, oh come
There's mercy
It doesn't matter what you've done
Oh come, oh come

If you're thirsty
The Spirit and the bride say come
Oh come, oh come
There's mercy
It doesn't matter what you've done
Oh come, oh come

There's healing, there's freedom
There's more than enough for everyone
There's healing, there's freedom
There's more than enough for everyone

There's healing, there's freedom
There's more than enough for everyone
There's healing, there's freedom
There's more than enough

So we come
Lord we come
Lord we come
Lord we come

We're thirsty
Your Spirit and the bride say come
Oh come, oh come
There's mercy
It's all because of what you've done

Oh come, oh come

We're thirsty

Your Spirit and the bride say come

Oh come, oh come

There's mercy

It's all because of what you've done

Oh come, oh come

We're thirsty

Your Spirit and the bride say come

Oh come, oh come

There's mercy

It's all because of what you've done

Oh come, oh come
