

The Devil Inside

Chris Medina

I'm sorry I got so frustrated
The truth is that I just cant help it
The minute I try, the devil inside
Is telling me I'm not doing it right

He keeps telling me I'm overrated
Been feeling kinda lonely lately
Even though you're sitting right here with me
So obviously the problem is me
When I feel ashamed I need someone to blame
And I'm sorry you were right there with me

Still you say you love me anyway
But love comes with a price to pay
I pray to God that you will stay, please stay

Its a miracle that your still with me
I know that I don't make it easy
One look in my eye and angels cry
The devil inside he don't care if you're right
Good Lord, he doesn't wanna let me be me

Still you say you love me anyway
But love comes with a price to pay
I pray to God that you will stay, stay

I know I should get better at saying
I'm sorry for the mess I'm making
But you know that its hard
To lower my guard
So hard to explain the million ways
That my cold little heart is breaking, my heart is breaking
