

All I Know

Chris Miles

Forget the haters, I'mma stay here
Keep on going 'til we make it
Life's a game, so I'mma roll my dice
And I'mma do it big with it all my life
This is all I know, all I know-oh-h
This is all I know, all I know-oh-h
This is all I know

Look, have you ever felt abandoned, left stranded Couldn't do it right like you're left handed?
Hanger is building, you're anxious to kill it
You aim for the sky and your aim has no limit
You want it, you can't win it
It's funny to them really Cause they don't know the grind of this struggle you were in
And I got my desk, but I can't stop now
And they gon' tell you you a failure til they see the crowds ch ecking out
All I know is this rap shit
I'mma stay me till they see put me in a casket
Trying to get this green we ain't talking about a cactus
Do it for my team and all the homies that adapted that's it
Uh, fans tell me that they think that is my time
I'm just trying to' chill with legends that be up there in my i
Pod
They say oh god and I ain't get it
We gon' do it independent

Uh, now tell me, are you feeling it?
Is it all up in your soul, on some inner shit?
Lames tell me if I'm trying to get the menace
But I won't blend in just to make a couple chameleons I'mma stand out and just stand proud with my head up and I won' t head south!
I'mma move up, yeah, I used to be nothing
Yeah, I got haters, but this, but I wonder, we'll never be fron ting
Man, we just keep living, yeah this for the people who mess wit h me back then
I'm trying my hardest to get to the finish
This for people who think I ain't good yet
This for the people who think that I'm faking
Who think that my parents write all of my lyrics
Who think that they're comments have any effect on my life
And I'm trying to make it like never before
