Chain glowing
Blonde bitch, Frank Ocean
Tryna tell 'em that I've been a young Beethoven
I don't usually carry cash, usually carry cash
But I could go and get some racks if the bank open

Yeah, I'm like a satellite
I seen the plug and get right yeah, yeah, yeah
Bitch tryna blow me like a dim line
Hit her one time, then tell her bye oh my gosh
This is what they want
Time to tell him, make 'em go dumb
Getting bucks, what the fuck is up
Everyday pushin my luck
Until, my
Brain's broken
Everyday I stay posted
If they try me we gone' Dej Loaf him
I remember everything you said to me
Now you ain't gotta wonder why you dead to me

Chain glowing
Blonde bitch, Frank Ocean
Tryna tell 'em that I've been a young Beethoven
I don't usually carry cash, usually carry cash
But I could go and get some racks if the bank open

Chain glowing
Everyday, same emotions
Tried to tell em that I've been a young Beethoven
I've been starting to carry cash, starting to carry cash
If you rob me you could probably go and buy some dope shit

To be honest
You be surfing waves, dawg, I could start some nom ish
Know this shit gone pay off imma do it timeless
Feel like Bernie Madoff, guac all in my pockets
Yeah, fuck love what's the point in tryna find it
Yeah, hard to trust, when you steppin from behind shit
It's time to level up, cause ya'll turned me to a monster
Seeing me alive, like I'm swimming with pirahnas

Chain glowing
Blonde bitch, Frank Ocean
Tryna tell 'em that I've been a young Beethoven
