

Out Here

Chris Miles

Word. Oh. Look

Life is so different when you're out here in the west
I come from the city
Like where everyone is stressed
They know what it is
I ain't even got to check
And I ain't brainwash her
She's just naturally obsessed
I love her chest

Get it going like
My occupation inspires the brains of many
I don't care about your two pennies
They hate the kid like Joe Pesci, check please
I be on the go, you already know
Then I run the stove [?]
I save that for later
Don't got the time to chill with you haters
Call Dunder Mifflin
I need that paper, I got that flavor
I got that flavor for these broads
Asking babies for their digits
I always forget to call
I'm so sorry. I'm just kidding
That's my dollar So is this one
I got problems, with commitment
Nevermind, let's get simplistic
This shit is
Wild
Young C. Miles
Killing all the music shit
And I ain't even try
Ever since I came up
Everybody in disguise
Flipping sides, got me tripping
And now tell me where the vibes [?]
Not surprised that I did this
Drinking water, yeah is delicious
[?] but I can just spit shit
No McCarthy [?] I feel like we're in sync

Life is so different when you're out here on west
I come from the city
Like where everyone is stressed
They know what it is
I ain't even got to check
And I ain't brainwash her
She's just naturally obsessed
I love her chest

Yeah
I got that Middle Eastern flow though
I say stupid shit for promo
And the world thinks that I'm loco
But your girlfriend wants a photo
I am like fosho

Let me see you got a new steez
But that shit old
Telling me you've been following a wave
I was tryin' to make something
A been working every day
Just so I can stay stuntin'
Homie you ain't really know

Spitting until I can go out in public
If you don't know me then don't make assumptions
Hope you try lickin' a pole in the coldest of winters
And I hope your tongue sticks

Yeah, yeah, homie don't ever come at me with dumb shit
Cause I run shit, when I function
Got a lot of different fans
And they all want this
Don't you ever grab you chance
You should just punch it
Till it gives you what you want
Livin' in the moment
New shit hot, I be chilling in the sauna
Hold on, I don't really care about opponents
I don't really care about the people talking shit
Online, cause getting that shit no yolo let's go!
Yo what!

Life is so different when you're out here on west
