

Run Away

Chris Miles

Shorty think that I'm the worst and she probably right
My intentions are bad as your fine ass just for tonight
Love don't last like it used to, I'm hopeless
Heartbroken player but baby I do what I know best

She say, what are you so afraid of?
Boy, your heart got some space I can take up
Only thing I'm scared of is that you won't feel the same
Maybe I could hold you down if you don't run away

Don't run away, don't run away
Can you stay for a, stay for a while
Don't run away (ooh), don't run away (oh)
Don't run away

Part of me feels like I'm wrong to live a life
As I'm ashin' my blunt in this wine glass I think twice
I'm like, love don't last like it used to, I'm hopeless
But maybe one day I could find it if I would just show it

She said, what are you so afraid of?
Boy, your heart got some space I can take up
Only thing I'm scared of is that you won't feel the same
Maybe I could hold you down if you don't run away

Don't run away, don't run away
Can you stay for a, stay for a while
Don't run away (ooh), don't run away (oh)
Don't run away
