

Weatherman

Chris Miles

Would you be mad if I told you the sky is falling down
If the rain hits your raybans baby all you can blame is the cloud
Don't blame me, don't blame me
Don't blame the weatherman for all of your cloudy days
Don't blame me, don't blame me
Don't blame the weatherman for all of your cloudy days

Don't blame the weatherman, dreaming of a distant land
I can paint a picture of this issue, let you understand
Man feel the rain from the sky cause I ain't telling lies
Yeah it's better that you know it now
Screw home, where the hotel
Always on the go, never slow with this propel
I gotta pro flow
Grind like a skater with a GoPro
All she wanna do is party drinking Loco
I'm never home though, I'm in a new state doing dope shows like
If I'm busy then I know that's not your problem
But, but I just thought you should know so I swear that this [?] stop for a second
I just wanna keep this shit on the low like Chinese spaghetti
I just wanna be with you, when I'm high with you so it's kinda hard to forge t it
Baby I'm the weatherman, I don't make the plans
I just tell you how I am living, listen let's go Straight up, word

Would you be mad if I told you the sky is falling down
If the rain hits your raybans baby all you can blame is the cloud
Don't blame me, don't blame me
Don't blame the weatherman for all of your cloudy days
Don't blame me, don't blame me
Don't blame the weatherman for all of your cloudy days

The meteorologist is not responsible for all of your problems, I swear to yo u
I live a life where the money is nice and I'm laughing hysterical
We would take flights just to be with you baby
I speak of love and they see me as crazy
So I'ma just do what I've been doing lately
And hope for the best, one day I'll be the greatest, I hope
Cause I work for all of this shit
Drove like five hours just to do a show with like two heads in that bitch
Cause I don't care who say, what they all say
You can come chill on my off days
Since I was 14, my whole team knew that I was gonna get up out the hallways and just fly
Just fly above precipitation
Once they heard I was a youngin', should've seen the look on all their faces
I'm not fly, yeah I'm fly
Baby tell me what you thinking
I just tell it how it is cause I know you can't envision
Babe, I'm sorry
Straight up, go

Would you be mad if I told you the sky is falling down
If the rain hits your raybans baby all you can blame is the cloud

Don't blame me, don't blame me
Don't blame the weatherman for all of your cloudy days
Don't blame me, don't blame me
Don't blame the weatherman for all of your cloudy days
Don't blame me, don't blame me
Don't blame the weatherman for all of your cloudy days
Don't blame me, don't blame me
Don't blame the weatherman for all of your cloudy days
