Wrong

Chris Miles

If you catch me running, just don't
Take it personal, I can't
Stay back in one place, I'm not
Too sure what love is
When all is said and done
I'm not the only one
I'm not the only one for you, baby
I could be wrong, ooh

Ooh, this time I could be wrong
For all the things I'm about
To put you through and I know
I'll do it again if you
Break down and let me
Please don't let me go that far
Before I lose
Before I lose you in myself
I know that is a truth, oh
Ooh, baby, I could be wrong

I don't wanna put you through all this nonsense
I'm staying bulletproof, they need coffins
Even though you got some shit in my apartment
That don't mean I wanna be with you, I'm sorry
She like, "Why we came this far to break apart?"
But I don't have a answer to the things you want
Never planned this far ahead, it's hard to guess what's coming
But now we know that love is just some fuck shit

Baby, I can't help that I'm selfish
I wasn't tryna fall for you, girl, but I fell in
But I think I want more, now you got me stuck on the floor
How come I always fail what I adore
After 'bout a month or two I always get bored
And I'm back to feeling dead 'cause I know there ain't a cure
Yeah, yeah

If you catch me running, just don't
Take it personal, I can't
Stay back in one place, I'm not
Too sure what love is
When all is said and done
I'm not the only one
I'm not the only one for you, baby
I could be wrong, ooh

Ooh, this time I could be wrong
For all the things I'm about
To put you through and I know
I'll do it again if you
Break down and let me
Please don't let me go that far
Before I lose
Before I lose you in myself
I know that is a truth, oh
Ooh, baby, I could be wrong
