

You're the One

Chris Montez

You're the one...
You're the one I live and die for
You're the one I'd have to cry for
Nobody but you

You're the one...
You're the one I'll walk and dance with
You're the one I'll take a chance with
Nobody but you
No one understands you
No one seems to care

When things go bad and you are sad
That's when I'll be there
You're the one...
You're the one I live and die for
You're the one I'll have to cry for
Nobody but you
No no nobody but you
Nobody but you

No nobody but you...
