

Crawling Up The Wall

Chris Norman

If you were gone I wouldn't cry for ya
I might sit down and write a song for ya
But I wouldn't care at all no, no
Y'know that love has never meant much to me
So don't go thinking that you're tied to me oh no
'Cos I wouldn't care at all oh, no

I'd just simply laugh about it,
I ain't complaining I'm wearing my heart on my sleeve

I'd be crawling up the wall
Walking on the wire,
And drowning in the sea
Burning like a fire, oh yeah

You wanna go then don't think twice about it
Don't imagine I can't live without it no, no
'Cos I wouldn't care at all oh, no
No I wouldn't care at all no, no, no, no

So don't go thinking I depend upon ya
I never needed much I really don't need you at all

I'd be crawling up the wall
Walking on the wire,
Drowning in the sea
Burning like a fire, oh yeah

I'd be crawling up the wall
Walking on the wire,
Drowning in the sea
Burning like a fire, oh yeah
