

Hard Road to Cross

Chris Norman

You know it ain't easy
And I guess I done you wrong
'Cos I'm just a pitiful fool

'Cos lately I'm waking my heart feels like breaking
And I just can't go on
'Cos baby I'm no good without you

And it's a hard road to cross
Yeah it's a long, long way to walk
And it's a high mountain I must climb
Oh it's a hard road to cross

Now I'm thinking and wondering
As I walk on down the road
That lately baby I'm losing you, oh, oh

Well last night I saw you with some man beside you
And lord, lord I felt so bad
And now I guess I know we're really through

And it's a hard road to cross
Yeah it's a long, long way to walk
And it's a high mountain I must climb
Oh it's a hard road to cross

And it's a hard road to cross (yes it is, yes it is)
Yeah it's a long, long way to walk
And it's a high mountain I must climb (I must climb)
Oh it's a hard road to cross
