

Resurrection

Chris Norman

All my life I tried to be strong
I've been there when something goes wrong
Done my best the best I can
I tried so hard to be a good man
Now at last I feel brand new Feel it coming and it's coming soon

Resurrection, yeah, resurrection, hmm
I'm feeling part of, yeah, a new direction
Well I come so far but I still got a long way to go

Don't need no license to try to be cool
Make mistakes by playing the fool
Upset some people and make amends
Learn my lesson while losing my friends
But I know this much is true
Well I feel it coming and it's coming soon

Resurrection, yeah, resurrection, oh
I'm feeling part of, yeah, a new direction
Well I come so far but I still got a long way to go

Don't set me up to knock me down
Give me your hand while I'm on the ground
Life's too short I tell you brother
Take your best shot and run for cover
Wanna join me it's up to you
But I feel it coming and it's coming soon

Resurrection, yeah, resurrection, hmm
I'm feeling part of, yeah, a new direction oh yeah
Well I come so far but I still got a long way to go

Resurrection, resurrection, hmm yeah resurrection, hmm, resurre ction
Well I come so far but I still got a long way to go
