I do not sleep tonight

I may not ever

The sins of the past have come

See how they sit down together

Outside my window

Outside my door

And I know the reason

What they've all come here for

You my love

My sweet, sweet love

Are what it's all because of

Surrender is easy

I know you do me no harm

But your innocence haunts me

The most fatal of charms

Oh I must have done some wrong

On a dark and distant day

For I know full and well tonight

This is how that I must pay

And you my love

My sweet, sweet love

Are what it's all because of

Oh, you my love

My sweet, sweet love

Are what it's all because of... yeah
