

Lets Getaway

Chris Rea

There's a time for trying
There's a time for being yourself
There's a time for sharing
There's a time for nobody else
But it's true, I can't deny
It hurts when we say goodbye

Let's getaway

Why do we do this everyday?
Somebody please tell me why
Why do we have to do what they say?
Chocking till the river runs dry

Why does it take us so long till we realize
We are only breaking our bones
Until the day we say our last goodbyes
And one of us is standing aline

Let's getaway
