Take me to the church and I'll pray, I'll pray
Take me to the river and I'll wash my sins away
Take me to the church and I'll pray, I'll pray
Take me to the river and I'll wash my sins away, away

Yeah, I'll dance in the water there
I'll hardly come up for air
Because in the waters of new life, I'm found
And all the world is right

So would You go with me as I walk this road?
Take me by the hand and lead this wanderer home
Would You go with me as I walk this road?
Take me by the hand and lead this wanderer home, home

There is still so far for me to climb
If I forget that You are mine
When the road in front of me gets dark, it can seem so far
But in the promise of Your light, I'm found
And all the world is right

All is right
All the world is right
When I'm found in You, when I'm found in You oh
All the world is right
Oh

So when I leave this world, there's nothing I'll bring
But whispered "Hallelujah" as I hear the angels sing, sing
Yeah, I'll stand with You in the end
I'll hear You call me a friend
'Cause where my faith becomes my sight, I'm found
And all the world is right
