Oh, I think You're beautiful
Though I've never seen Your face
Oh, I think You're beautiful
Though we've never shared the same place
With our bodies, with our bodies... yeah

Oh, I think You're beautiful
Though I've never seen Your face
Oh, I think You're beautiful
Though we've never shared the same place
With our bodies, with our bodies... yeah

But You are here, and I feel it
You are here, and I know it
You are all around me
But You are here, and I feel it
You are here, and I know it
You are all around me

You are here, and I feel it
You are here, and I know it
You are all around me
You are here, and I feel it
You are here, and I know it
You are all around me

You are all around me, yea-eh-ehh
You are all around me, yea-eh-ehh
You are all around me, yea-eh-ehh

You are here, and I feel it
You are here, and I know it
You are all around me
