

Not Finished Yet

Chris Renzema

Hearts like stones
Taken by the sculptor
Polished forms
Every rough edge
Till everything else is gone
And all that remains is beautiful

Pain like thorns
Growing in a garden
One by one
Removed by careful hands
Till everything else is gone
And all that remains is beautiful

You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet

When I'm scared
And my eyes, they can't see You
Are You still there?
Are You gonna pull me through?
When everything else is gone
And You're all that remains
In the rubble and the ruin

You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet

You're making all things new
You're not finished yet
You're making all things new
You're not finished yet
A marvel from the marble
A garden from the bramble
You're making all things new

You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet
You're not finished yet
