

Square One

Chris Renzema

I want to want to get better
I want to want to feel closer to you and I'm far away
I want to feel the feelings I need to feel to be undone
'Cause without you I can't even get to square one
Without you I can't

So'd you light up my nervous system?
Would your voice come break over my deaf ears?
Burning bush in the distance
Opening my eyes after 40 years
Come and wake me, oh sleeper
I'm praying for the miracle of waking up
I'm praying for the miracle of waking up

I want to want to get better
I want to want to feel closer to you and I'm far away
I want to feel the feelings I need to feel to be undone
'Cause without you I can't even get to square one
Without you I can't

So'd you light up my nervous system?
Would your voice come break over my deaf ears?
Burning bush in the distance
Opening my eyes after 40 years
Come and wake me, oh sleeper
I'm praying for the miracle of waking up
I'm praying for the miracle of waking up

And I
Don't feel it all the time
Am I being too honest?
If I
Don't feel it all the time
Am I being too honest?
Am I being too honest?
I'm just being honest

Without you I can't even get to square one
Without you I can't even get to square one
Without you I can't even get to square one
Without you I can't
