

Let It Burn

Chris Rice

Here I am
I'm standing like a man
I've taken all I can but when's enough?
Show me
Show up, show me
I'm trying hard to trust, but it's too much

With both of my fists up, fighting
Like I stand a chance against the lightning
I try not to let it burn
Can't scream out louder than the thunder
Should I just give into the wonder
When am I going to learn
Just let it burn

Holy ground
Only dust beneath my feet
But the flames in front of me have got me burning
It hurts me to be this close to you
Protect me from yourself and show me mercy

With both of my fists up, fighting
Like I stand a chance against the lightning
I try not to let it burn
Can't scream out louder than the thunder
Should I just give into the wonder
When am I going to learn
Let it burn

Let it burn so bright that the whole world sees
Til it lights up the darkness inside of me
If it takes all night 'til the morning
Let it burn
Let it burn so high make the heavens glow
Til the angels seein' every broken soul
If it takes all night 'til the morning
Let it burn
Let it burn with hope with the shadows high
'Til my blood runs free
'Til I'm purified
If it takes all night 'til the morning
Let it burn
Let it burn with love while I sing my song
That the world will know
Let it sing along
If it takes all night 'til the morning
Let it burn

With both of my fists up, fighting
Like I stand a chance against the lightning
I try not to let it burn
Can't scream out louder than the thunder
Should I just give into the wonder
When am I gonna learn
Let it burn
