

Dog Eat Sun

Chris Robinson Brotherhood

Saffron dries, the cock does crow
Roots of the ancient trees still grow
Be warned of what the mad man knows
The dragon's truth is fine

Years like torrents and years like glass
Some cross low, and some fly fast
Wonder, will you be the last to watch the dog eat the sun

Oh, universal bond
White light, new sun
The change has now begun
No love forever

Conjurer of miraculous means
Master of the in between
Nothing is what it seems
Can you show me what you know
So douse your flame and drop your pen
The time has come to let them in
Say farewell to your Earth now friends
And smile

Oh, universal bond
White light, new sun
The change has now begun
No love forever

Oh, universal bond
White light, new sun
The change has now begun
No love forever
