

Common Enemies

Chris Staples

Are you blind
Or do you see
Either way we should agree
We're up against an enemy
Common enemies

Could you change your perspective
From the criminal to the detective
Wish you could see the world
In a different way
And not be afraid
Afraid to make a little change

I loved you when it made no sense
I was safe up on the fence
I wanted you to truly see
That you and I could never be
