

Mailbox

Chris Staples

I was afraid
For a while
That things would not be getting any better
That I should be expecting a letter
In my mailbox
Informing me
That your feelings have been whittled
Down to nearly nothing
And oh could you please
Collect up all your things
And leave them in a box
For easy pick up