

I Should Have Known It

Chris Stapleton

I shoulda known it, I shoulda seen
Leave it to you to treat me mean
Every promise was just a runaround
I shoulda known it, yeah, you're gonna let me down

It's over now, you see
That's the last time you're gonna hurt me

I shoulda known it, hard to believe
It was all right there in front of me
Sold down the river, left for dead
Yeah, you're puttin' ideas in another man's head

And it's over now, you see
That's the last time you're gonna hurt me

Thanks for nothing, thanks a lot
Go ahead, baby, take all I've got

And it's over now, you see
That's the last time you're gonna hurt me

That's the last time you're gonna hurt me
