

I'm Yours If You Want Me

Chris Thile

I'm yours if you want me

And I'm sorry if you do

'Cause I don't have that much to offer

A girl who knows as much as you

I'm scared of your body and I'm scared of your soul

But I'd rather be letdown

Than let being with you go

I'm yours if you want me

you can see I'm not mine anymore

it didn't take much to drive me crazy

I guess I wasn't that sane before

I don't care about my future and I don't care about your past

Those things come from and lead to right now and they can get the hell out fast

So I'm yours if you want me

And you know what now I think you should

'cause I want you to be mine so bad

I promise I'll make it good
