

Boundary Lines

Chris Tomlin

I cannot contain this love
I cannot contain this love
I cannot contain this love
I cannot contain this love

The boundary lines have fallen in welcome places
The Lord is my defender and my shield
I will keep my eyes always, always
Set on You
Forever You're my joy

My heart is a cup
Your love is an ocean
You fill me up like rivers overflowing
My heart is a cup
Your love is an ocean
You fill me up like rivers overflowing

The boundary lines have fallen in welcome places
The Lord is my defender and my shield
I will keep my eyes always, always
Set on You
Forever You're my joy

I cannot contain this love
I cannot contain this love
I cannot contain this love
I cannot contain this love

My heart is a cup
Your love is an ocean
You fill me up like rivers overflowing
My heart is a cup
Your love is an ocean
You fill me up like rivers overflowing

I cannot contain this love
I cannot contain this love
I cannot contain this love
I cannot contain this love
