

Into The Wasteland

Chris Trapper

I get two weeks paid vacation
but spend half of the year waiting
For it to come to me
If I quit no one would notice
I guess my name tags out of focus
'Cause my boss calls me hey you

Scream I want to scream into the wasteland surrounding me

It's the same old situation
Meet my friends out they're all wasted
Like they will always be
I could beat them I could join them
My resistance just annoys them
Feeling gravity

Scream I want to scream into the wasteland surrounding me
Soon when I'm gone you will see you don't know me
Don't want to waste another day
I want to steal myself away
Before I fade into the paint on the wall
Gonna sail across the line
Gonna leave this mess behind
Been feeling like it's much too far to fall

Packed my suitcase packed the trunk
Left the rent check you're in luck
And then I locked the door
And as I checked the rear view mirror
I saw the sunrise so much clearer
Than I ever did before

Don't want to waste another day
I want to steal myself away
Before I fade into the paint on the wall
Gonna sail across the line
Gonna leave this mess behind
Been feeling like it's much too far to fall
Scream I want to scream into the wasteland surrounding me
