Jukebox Lights

Chris Trapper

I was the loneliest that I had ever been when I saw you at the bar
So I sat right next to you and I asked you what you do So you told me who you are

Hey, on the inside
I've been polishing mirrors
Hey, on the outside I've been holding back tears

How could I forget your name?

You're crazy for Patsy Cline,
My Funny Valentine
Any Frank Sinatra song
I won't forget tonight love by the jukebox lights as you're waving from your cab-->
