She sweet as my wood and you sweeter than nectar
Fuck all the clout it could leave in a second
That's why I pray up and I count all my blessings
I do what I please there ain't no second guessin'
I didn't go to school cause these beats was my lesson
Made up some money myself I invest in

But I can't get caught up, materials is [?]
This world is [?] out and could right any second

Like it's 2012, I am greater
She swimmin' in the water, I can't save her
Like it's 2012, I am greater
She swimmin' in the water, I can't save her

I give no fuck 'bout a basic
She all on my shoulder can I get acquainted
She know I make bangers and I can't contain her
