

Elysian Park

Chris Wallace

I was sick and tired of being tired
Til I saw your ocean eyes
When you came along, I felt brand new
Now I can't wait to run away with you

We were sitting on Elysian Park
When I held you in my arms
Said I think we deserve a better view
Now I can't wait to run away with

You my love
Just the two of us
And the sky above
Burning down the road
Chasing waterfalls
Through Elysian Park
Singing Dark Blue
Now I can't wait to run away with you

Pack your bags we'll leave tonight
To nowhere or to paradise
The City of Angeles, it just won't do
Now I can't wait to run away with you

You know I'm gonna get higher every mile
I drive away with you
Oh, lets throw away the rules
Cuz we can't lose
Now I can't wait to run away with

You my love
Just the two of us
And the sky above
Burning down the road
Chasing waterfalls
Through Elysian Park
Singing Dark Blue
Now I can't wait to run away with you

(You...)
Now I can't wait to run away (with you)

You my love
Just the two of us
And the sky above
Burning down the road
Chasing waterfalls
Through Elysian Park
Singing Dark Blue
Now I can't wait to run away with you
